Benefits for Veterans

ATI College is approved by the California State Approving Agency for Veterans Education (CSAAVE) to enroll veterans and other eligible persons. We are committed to providing a high quality education to our veteran heroes. Available programs include:

- Montgomery GI Bill® – Chapter 30
- Vocational Rehabilitation – Chapter 31
- Post-9/11 GI Bill® – Chapter 33
- Dependents Educational Assistance – Chapter 35
- Reserve GI Bill® – Chapter 1606
- Yellow Ribbon Program
- Department of Defense (DoD) Military Tuition Assistance (TA)

The Military Tuition Assistance program provides educational assistance to active duty military members. Each branch has its own criteria for eligibility, obligated service, application process and restrictions. If you are unsure if you are eligible and would like to learn more, please visit your Education Service Specialist or Education Service Officer of your respective branch.

My Career Advancement Account (MyCAA) Scholarship Program

The Military Spouse Career Advancement Accounts (MyCAA) program provides financial assistance for military spouses. MyCAA helps military spouses pursue licenses, certificates, or associate degrees necessary to gain employment in high demand, high growth portable career fields and occupations. Eligible spouses can establish a MyCAA account by visiting the MyCAA website at <https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/myca>.

If you're veteran, you may qualify for VA education benefits. Eligible military personnel should contact the Financial Aid Department for further assistance.

Workforce Investment Act (WIA) of 1998

California's Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL) was established in compliance with the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) of 1998 and amended by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014 to provide customer-focused employment training resources for adults and dislocated workers.

ATI College is authorized training provider and is eligible to receive Individual Training Accounts (ITAs) through WIOA Title I-B funds are listed on the ETPL.

California's statewide list of qualified training providers offers a wide range of educational programs, including classroom, correspondence, online and apprenticeship programs.

Search for Training Providers

Use CalJOBSSM to search hundreds of eligible training providers by location, area of interest, and type of service following these steps:

- Visit CalJOBSSM.
- Sign in if you already have a CalJOBSSM account and select "Education Services." Continue with step 3 below.
- If you don't have an account and do not wish to create one, continue with step 2 below.
- Select "More Career Services."
- Select "Training Providers and Schools." The Provider Search will display (You may also select the Provider Listing tab for a list of all training providers).
- Enter and/or select your search criteria.
- Select "Eligible Providers" from the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act Eligible Training Provider dropdown menu.
- Select the "Search" button once your criteria have been entered.
- Select a provider from the list.
- Once a provider is selected, the programs eligible for Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act funding will display a green checkmark.
